

Today is Giving Tuesday — a global day of generosity and impact. It's a chance to come together and support the causes that matter most.

Consider supporting CheckIt4Andretti as we work to increase access to colorectal cancer screenings, raise awareness, and provide critical resources to those who need them most. ❤️ Your donation is tax-deductible and helps drive prevention forward.

"The combination of side abdominal pain from my 10 herniated discs in my back and my cousin John's #checkit4andretti initiative led me to get an early colonoscopy. I am glad I did 7-10 years early as polyp was found and taken out. Just an appreciation post for my cousin and maybe a nudge for you to #checkit4andretti yourself for early detection. 🙏"

A heartfelt thank you to the 500 Breakfast Club and especially Bob & Diane Beisel for your continued support and dedication. Special thanks as well to Mary Jo Andretti Dial for organizing the Greens to Glam Cabi collection event—bringing both style and purpose to the day!

Save the date: Next year's tournament will be held on September 26, 2026—we can't wait to see you there!

An evening of gratitude with the Community Care Clinic of Rowan County!

On Monday, November 10th, Nancy and Jarett Andretti had the pleasure of attending Community Thanks, a beautiful event hosted by our partners at the Community Care Clinic. From honoring volunteers, partners and donors to celebrating the impact of compassionate care, it was a heartwarming reminder of the power of community. We're proud to partner with this incredible clinic to expand access to preventive screenings for those who need it most.

It seems as if someone famous is being diagnosed with colon cancer almost weekly ❤️

CheckIt4Andretti posted a blog last year, highlighting celebrities, like John Andretti himself, who were in the prime of life, yet fell to the ravages of colon cancer. Today, we have a more hopeful story to tell: that of James Van Der Beek. His colon cancer was caught before it spread, and he's cautiously optimistic about the future and raising awareness for others.
